Learning to Hear God's Voice training day—Saturday 13th October, 10am-4pm, Stoke Holy Cross Church. We are really pleased to welcome Mark Aldridge to this New Wine East event on Saturday 13th October from 10am-4pm. Mark is Director of Leadership Development for New Wine, and loves to teach on the prophetic, healing, the Kingdom of God and the mission of the Church. He will be sharing exciting stories and principles from his book Learning to hear God's voice... and live a prophetic lifestyle. Copies will be available on the day. We suggest a contribution of £5 on the door, which includes drinks: you will need to bring your own lunch. Please book in via the website or Facebook page 'Venta group of churches'. We look forward to seeing you there!

Please pray...

For the preparations for Alpha and who you will invite to join in.

For all of those who will be attending and reflecting on creating community, deepening discipleship and encouraging evangelism at our PCC away day in Mulbarton.

Please pray for anyone you know to be sick, bereaved, or in trouble of any kind; please do remember that, with their permission, we are very happy to include the names of anyone in our group of villages here.
