A big thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make the concert at Caistor St Edmund last Friday night such a success.

Please pray...

Now that parliament has passed the Brexit bill, please continue to pray for the best possible outcome from the continued negotiations for all concerned.

Bishop Graham has announced his retirement, to take place from November this year into early 2019. Give thanks and pray for Graham and Julie in this time of transition for them, and for all involved in leading the diocese in the vacancy, and discerning the way forward for his succession.

Please continue to pray for those from around the churches who went on the Leading Your Church into Growth course last week, and for everyone who will be involved in thinking about the steps we can implement in the months to come.

Please pray for Rob and Lyn in the next couple of weeks that amidst all the things they have to do, especially Lyn with her ordination, they would find time to be still and be with God.
